

TWINS, AGED 83, KILLED BY GAS IN THEIR SLEEP

Disarranged Heater Tube Causes Women's Death
During Visit to Brooklyn.

Mrs. Eva L. Biso, eighty-three years old, and her twin sister, Miss Ada L. Sanford, both of New Britain, Conn., were accidentally killed by gas to-day in the home of their niece, Mrs. J. E. Humason, No. 142 Wilson street, Brooklyn.

The aged twins arrived in Brooklyn yesterday to remain with their niece until after Thanksgiving. They went to the theatre last night and were up until past midnight. Mrs. Humason went to their room to call them to-day and they did not respond. As she knew they were accustomed to go to bed early and sleep late she did not return to the bedroom until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

When she got no response to her knocks she opened the door and was almost overpowered by the gas that rushed out upon her. She called Policeman Luke Maxwell, who found that both the old women were dead. A neighborhood surgeon said they had been dead several hours.

CONTEMPT CHARGE ORDERED AGAINST AN ASSEMBLYMAN.

Justice Zeller Directs Whitman to Tell Bar Association About Spielberg's Conduct.

Justice Zeller of the Court of Special Sessions directed District Attorney Whitman to-day to proceed against Assemblyman Harold J. Spielberg, a lawyer, for contempt of court and for impeding the administration of justice in the cases of three clients who were called for trial Nov. 14 on charges of conducting a disorderly resort. He also requested the District Attorney to bring the case to the attention of the grievance committee of the Bar Association.

Mr. Whitman said:
"I will take immediate steps to prefer charges against this attorney to the grievance committee of the Bar Association. The defendants for whom this attorney appeared failed to appear at the time of the trial and their bonds were forfeited. But notwithstanding their failure to appear all the power of this court will be used to locate them and give them an early and speedy trial."

While Justice Zeller would not reveal all the facts in his possession he said Assemblyman Spielberg had brought a power of attorney from his three clients into court and sought to appear for them. When requested to produce his clients he failed to do so. The defendants in the case are Jacob Hedra, his wife, Rosa, and Max Rosenbach.

KAISER HAS A COLD, CANCELS HUNTING TRIP.

Those Nearest German Ruler Make Light of Illness That Up-sets His Plans.

BERLIN, Nov. 15.—Emperor William has cancelled the hunting trip in Silesia upon which he had intended to start last evening. The reason given is that he is suffering from a slight cold regarding which, however, those near his Majesty speak in the most reassuring terms.

Last February the Emperor was confined to his room for several days with an attack of influenza, accompanied by fever. On that occasion the official bulletins at first described the indisposition as due to a cold concerning which no anxiety was felt. The usual mystery surrounded the case and caused some uneasiness among the public until His Majesty appeared at the German Agricultural Conference, apparently fully restored to health.

London's Population 7,252,963.
LONDON, Nov. 15.—A bulky volume of London statistics has been issued by the London County Council. It shows that Greater London has an area of 693 square miles and a population of 7,252,963.

13 INDICTMENTS IN U. S. COURT FOR FREIGHT REBATES

Traffic Officials of the Baltimore and Ohio and Lehigh Valley Roads Accused.

Thirteen indictments were returned to-day by the Federal Grand Jury charging traffic officials of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and the Lehigh Valley with giving rebates to seven shippers. The shippers are indicted for receiving the rebates. The charges are brought under the Interstate Commerce Act. All of the indictments were handed to Judge Martin this afternoon.

The railroad men indicted are Robert B. Ways, foreign freight agent of the Baltimore and Ohio, and Thomas N.
Jarvis, vice-president, and Clarence A.
Blood, traffic manager of the Lehigh Valley.

Jarvis and Blood are charged with granting rebates to George W. Sheldon & Co. of Chicago, and George W.
Sheldon, president and Henry W. Ack-off, vice-president of the Sheldon company are indicted for receiving the rebates.

The persons named as receiving rebates from the Baltimore and Ohio, whose cases make up the separate charges against Ways, are as follows: Julius E. Barnard of Barnard, Judas & Co., Morris Ascher of Gallagher & Ascher, Oscar P. Kosche, trading as Charles D. Stone & Co., Albert E. Gra-ser, president of the American Shipping Company, August Bontax, president of the International Forwarding Company, and Peter C. Kuyper, trading as P. C.
Kuyper & Co.

All of the defendants charged with receiving rebates are business men of Chicago.

Jarvis and Blood appeared before Judge Martin and gave $5,000 bail for their appearance when wanted for trial.

HER DREAM WAS TRUE

YONKERS, N. Y., Nov. 15.—Mrs. Matthew Connery of No. 24 Riverside avenue awoke to-day greatly agitated and told her husband she had just dreamed she had been at the bedside of her father and saw him dying. Connery tried to comfort her, but as the morning wore along her agitation increased.

At length a messenger boy arrived with a dispatch telling of the sudden death of Mrs. Connery's father, Otto Dittmar, a well-to-do resident of Amityville, and stating the hour when he died. It was the hour when Mrs. Connery had the dream.

NEW COLD WEATHER RULE FOR FIXED POST POLICE

Commissioner Waldo on His Own Initiative Gives Relief to Those in Exposed Sections.

Police men on fixed post duty in exposed sections of the city were overjoyed to learn of a humane decision reached by Police Commissioner Waldo.
The head of the force acted upon his own initiative without suggestion from the men who have faced wind and rain during the recent cold snap without complaint.

"During the cold weather months," said Mr. Waldo, "the fixed post policemen along Riverside Drive and other exposed sections will perform regular patrol. In the event of exceptionally cold weather the precinct commanders will be authorized to relieve men on fixed posts every half hour instead of every hour, as is now the practice."
